Voting rights of members of Club

36. Voting rights of members of Association

(1) Subject to these rules, each full member present in person or by proxy at a general meeting is entitled to a deliberative vote.

(2) Subject to these rules, each affiliate member present in person is not entitled to a deliberative vote.

(3) Subject to these rules, each probationary member present is not entitled to a deliberate vote.

By- Law 1.

Probationary Membership:

1. The Probationary new member will be expected to meet all aspects of demeanour, attitude and sportsmanship as per Rule 1 and Rule 15(1) of the Association Rules.

2. Each new member shall serve a probationary period of no less than 6 months, during which period the new member must attend no less than 10 regular sailing dates or regattas, as per the club calendar: (a) Should sailing date/s be cancelled by the committee during the probationary period of six months, the new member will be credited with having attended for the cancelled date/s. (b) Should the new member be unable to attend for the required number of regattas during this period for reasons other than committee cancellations as per 2 (a), the new member will notify the committee the reasons for non-attendance and request a period of probation extension.

3. The committee of the association will:

(1) Consider the grounds for such notification as presented in 2 (b), and the committee will advise the probationary member if such extension is to be granted or denied.

(2) Failure to comply with 2. (b) will result in a breach of member application conditions and loss of membership.

(3) A probationary member who ceases to be a member for non-compliance under by-law 1. (b) shall receive no right of appeal to the committee under Rule 15 of the constitution.

(4). The Committee reserves the right to over-rule and void Rule 2. of the by-laws under extraordinary circumstances, as presented by the new probationary member.
